

Tim Carter

“Ask The Builder”

Tim Carter is a former Cincinnati-based custom home builder and remodeler. He's a master carpenter, master roof cutter and master plumber. In 1993 Carter was selected as one of the Top 50 Remodelers in the USA by Remodeling magazine. He used that award to launch his self-syndicated newspaper column that ran in nearly 100 newspapers. In 1995, Carter launched his popular website, AsktheBuilder.com which now gets 45,000 unique visitors per day.

Carter also started producing home-improvement videos in 1998, and is now one of the most popular home-improvement Partners on YouTube. Hundreds of helpful videos showing the right way to do many tasks around your home can be found there.

Carter continues to write columns and produce videos each week. You can find all this past content for free at AsktheBuilder.com. He currently is building his retirement home in New Hampshire on 90 acres of pristine forestland complete with waterfalls.
